Memo #33.16

Comrades,

I'd like to take this opportunity to remind you of an important service available to all Veterans. Owned and operated by the New Chelsea Society, Winch House is a beautiful 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom town-house located in South Vancouver that offers free, temporary accommodation to Veterans, Legion members, Canadian Forces members, and First Responders who are receiving medical care in the Metro Vancouver area. Winch House allows these individuals the chance to recover from surgery with their families, and without the added expense of costly Vancouver accommodation. For additional information, I have attached a brochure and announcement from the New Chelsea society.

If you, or someone you know, requires treatment in Vancouver and would like to book a stay at Winch House, please contact me at (604) 575-8840 or joseph.waugh@legionbcyukon.ca in order to arrange a referral.

Joseph
